The Outstanding First-Year Student Advocate Award recognizes and celebrates the efforts and significant contributions of UNCG faculty and staff who provide leadership in creating a positive transition to college and successful learning environment for first-year students.

Qualifications for Nomination:
The award is open to any full-time or part-time UNCG faculty or staff member.

Selection Criteria:
Candidate offers significant contributions in fostering a positive environment for first-year students

Candidate demonstrates noteworthy impact on student learning, satisfaction, or student persistence and retention.

Candidate consistently demonstrates best practice when working with first-year students

Candidate contributions are innovative and sustainable over time

Submit your nominations here by February 15, 2019