Refer to Dean of Students Office when...

...you are unsure about the institutional policy regarding a specific need.

...the student is experiencing personal difficulties that may impact them in a variety of ways.

...the student is in need of support you are unable to provide.

...the student has experienced a recent mental health hospitalization

Refer to others when...

...the student is in crisis and in need of counseling (UNCG Counseling Center)

...the student is experiencing an emergency which requires immediate response (UNCG Police Department)

...the student needs accommodations related to a disability (Office of Accessibility Resources & Services)

Common Misunderstandings

- Dean of Students Office cannot excuse absences or approve make-up assignments
- Dean of Students Office cannot require faculty, staff, or other UNCG entity to make a certain decision
- Meetings with Dean of Students Office are not a substitute for counseling
