Got ADHD? (Or, know someone who does and might need accommodations?)

Learning Disability?

Autism?

Anxiety?

Depression?

Medical concern?

Mobility concern?

Other circumstance impacting major life activity for which an accommodation may be needed?

Don't wait! Get connected today! Then, when you need the extra time on that test (or whatever), things will be in place to implement without delay!

To Connect, simply complete and submit the Welcome Form (<https://oars.uncg.edu/student-services/register/>). You may upload any documentation with that form or send it separately to oars@uncg.edu. We'll schedule a virtual consult, at your convenience.

Reach out if you have any questions! We'd love to hear from you!
