

FYE 101: SUCCEED AT THE G

PEER ACADEMIC LEADERS

FALL 2023

Peer Academic Leaders (PALs) serve new students as advocates, teaching assistants, and mentors in FYE 101: Succeed at the G, a MAC Foundations course. This course aims to equip students with the tools and resources to be successful in college. PALs have the distinct leadership opportunity to help the students in their class section transition to college, get connected to campus resources, and establish a sense of belonging here at UNC Greensboro.

100%

OF PALS WERE SATISFIED WITH THEIR EXPERIENCE

97%

OF STUDENTS BELIEVED THEIR PAL GENUINELY CARED ABOUT THEM

100%

OF PALS WOULD RECOMMEND THE PAL POSITION

"Overall, being a PAL was one of the best things I could have experienced during my time at UNCG. I grew so much from this role, and it made me realize my strengths and other areas to improve in. I gained numerous skills, and honestly, I am glad I get to do it again!"
- Fall 2023 PAL

95%

OF PALS REPORTED A POSITIVE LEVEL OF CONNECTION WITH THEIR STUDENTS

100%

OF PALS REPORTED FEELING SUPPORTED BY THEIR FYE INSTRUCTORS

76%

OF PALS REPORTED LEADING MORE THAN THEIR ONE REQUIRED CLASS DURING THE SEMESTER

76%

OF PALS REPORTED MEETING WITH STUDENTS 2+ TIMES OUTSIDE OF REQUIRED 1-ON-1'S

"My PAL was really fun and patient within the classroom, which allowed everyone to work together well, ask for help when we needed, and create a sense of belonging. My PAL did a good job of teaching the class and being an overall mentor!" - Fall 2023 FYE 101 Student

Based on information collected from bi-weekly reporting & end of year assessments.

Interested in learning more about Peer Academic Leaders (PALs)?
Connect with New Student Transitions & First Year Experience at amcastilloa@uncg.edu