DEAN OF STUDENTS

The mission of the Dean of Students Office is to initiate learner-centered programs and services that foster a culture of care conducive to academic and personal development.

SOAR
WHEN YOU MIGHT INTERACT WITH US

IF YOU REACH OUT TO US BECAUSE...
• You are experiencing a personal difficulty and need to be connected to resources
• You are not sure where to go to find the answer to your question and need a place to start
• You are concerned about the wellbeing of another student

IF WE REACH OUT TO YOU BECAUSE...
• Someone in the campus community reached out to us out of concern for your wellbeing
• Members of the campus community could include: faculty, staff, students, family and friends
HOW THE DEAN OF STUDENTS OFFICE SUPPORTS OUR STUDENTS

1. Basic Needs
   We support students who are experiencing food and housing insecurity by connecting them to resources on campus and the greater Greensboro community.

2. Students in Distress
   We support students struggling with their mental health and wellbeing by providing advocacy, support, and education around campus resources based on student needs.

3. Title IX Support
   We support students by providing supportive measures and assist students in navigating processes relating to students affected by sexual harassment or changes in pregnancy and/or parenting status.

4. Campus Climate
   We support students who feel as though they have been treated differently based on their actual or perceived identity(ies).
1. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA)
FERPA protects the privacy of educational records.

2. FERPA at UNCG
For detailed information about FERPA, please visit http://ferpa.uncg.edu/

3. Mostly Confidential Resources
We are a mostly confidential resources—what you discuss with our office stays confidential except for a few circumstances which require that we report to another office for additional support.

4. Strictly Confidential Resources
Strictly confidential resources include: Student Health Services, Campus Violence Response Center, and Guilford County Family Justice Center
Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities

The Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities supports the University’s mission of preparing students for lives of engaged citizenship and leadership in a global society through advocacy, education and accountability.

Through educational initiatives and processes for adjudication of alleged misconduct, the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities encourages honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. We value a student’s right to a fair, respectful process, and the responsibility each student has to be an accountable member of the University Community.
