Title IX: Prevention, Intervention, & Response

https://oiigc.uncg.edu/title-ix/
At your table, take a few minutes to share what you already know about Title IX.

If you’ve never heard of Title IX, share that at the table talk as well.
Session Overview

Main Topics

1. What is Title IX?
2. Where to report?
3. What you can do to prevent harassment & how to support students who experience it.
Title IX

No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.

#37Words
Types of Discrimination Covered under Title IX

1. Sexual Harassment
   Sexual assault, dating & domestic violence, stalking, harassment

2. Gender-Based Harassment
   Harassment based on gender identity

3. Pregnancy & Parenting
   Harassment based on pregnancy and/or parenting status
Sexual Harassment

*through 7/31/24

➢ Grooming for unwelcome sexual conduct OR ➢ Severe, Persistent, and objectively offensive conduct, OR ➢ Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, Stalking

One student lures another into a room and conspiring with two friends to commit two separate acts of sexual assault over two hours.

Multiple incidents of rape committed against the same victim

Constant and repeated pattern of in-person stalking and cyberstalking over the course of a month
Your Role:

Support
Believe them

Refer
Refer to support options: Title IX, CVRC, Dean of Students Offices

Report
titleix.uncg.edu, UNCG PD
You Don’t…

1. Determine if the incident violates Title IX

2. Find out what happened, i.e., investigate

3. Take guesses about what happens next
What Happens After the Report:

Phone Call & Letter

DOS or TIX will reach out to the student

Reach out from CVRC

CVRC may follow-up with the student within a week to check-in

Another Letter

If DOS or Title IX do not hear from the student, we send one more letter to let them know we're here

Students Leads The Way!